PROLOGUE

We Hear The Need for Help

Violent crime continues to rise. Every day there is news about violence — murder, assault, rape.

The criminal's rights, punishments and release are public knowledge. However, we are not aware of the pain and suffering of the victims and their families which continues long after the crime has occurred.

In an effort to alleviate hardships suffered by victims of crime, the Alabama Legislature passed the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission Law June 1, 1984. The Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission provides the only substantial financial compensation to victims for expenses for personal injuries including medical, funeral and counseling bills. Alabama's compensation law covers a variety of expenses for which compensation is paid.

As of July 27, 1995, in sexual abuse crimes and offenses, Alabama law provides for the cost of medical examinations for the purpose of gathering evidence and treatment for preventing venereal disease. Application for other expenses incurred, including physical injury, counseling and lost wages, must meet eligibility criteria.

This assistance lessens the financial burden of innocent victims of violent crime and serves as a vehicle of hope for the rights of crime victims.

Our state law is unique. It requires a victim or family member of a victim of violent crime to serve on the three-member commission which hears victim compensation cases. This provision insures that claims are reviewed from the victim's standpoint.

Now there's hope for victims of crime. You can begin the healing process by calling the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission in Montgomery to find out if you qualify.

Dear Governor Riley, Ladies and Gentlemen:

On behalf of the Commissioners of the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission and this office, it is my honor to submit the Annual Report of the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission for the period October 1, 2003, through September 30, 2004. The report comprises the areas of responsibility of the Commission, as well as activities the Commission has endeavored to present and sustain each year.

This year, approximately 3.3 million in compensation was provided by the Commission to victims of violent crimes for financial losses they incurred as a result of their victimization. Since the inception of the Crime Victims Compensation Commission in 1984, more than $60,000,000 has been provided to innocent victims of crime in Alabama. That we are able to continue to operate for the best interests of the citizens of Alabama is a testament to the support the Commission has received from your office and the Alabama Legislature. We are indebted to the judges, district attorneys, law enforcement officers, victim service officers, and victim advocate groups that humbly serve the needs of the innocent victims we serve.

Thank you for the continuing opportunity to be of service to crime victims and their families.

Respectfully,

Martin A. Ramsay

Governor Appoints Commission

Miriam Shehane

Miriam Shehane was appointed to the original Commission in 1984 for a four-year term by Governor George Wallace and was re-appointed by Governor Guy Hunt in 1988. She served until 1992 and was re-appointed in July 1993 by Governor Jim Folsom, July 20, 1998 by Governor Fob James, July 2001 by Gov. Siegelman. She is a former banker and has worked as the Victim Service Officer in the District Attorney's office in Montgomery and as the Supervisor of the Attorney General's Office of Victim Assistance. Mrs. Shehane's dedication to the victims' movement in Alabama has been acknowledged throughout the nation where she has been asked to speak at national conferences on victims' issues. Mrs. Shehane was one of the founding members of VOCAL, Victims of Crime and Leniency, and has served on the Board since its inception in 1982. She found out about the trauma of victimization first hand when her 21 year old daughter Quenette, was murdered in 1976 while enrolled at Birmingham Southern. Miriam and her husband Edward have two children and seven grandchildren and reside in Clio, Alabama.

Chief Rick Singleton

Chief Rick Singleton was appointed to the Commission in June 2003 by Governor Bob Riley to serve a four-year term as the law enforcement representative. He has served as the Chief of Police of the Florence Police Department since 1996. He began his career in 1972, serving as deputy sheriff with the Lauderdale County Sheriff's office. Chief Singleton holds a Bachelor of Science in Law Enforcement and Business Administration from the University North Alabama and a Master's Degree of Science in Criminal Justice from the University of Alabama at Tuscaloosa. Chief Singleton is active in numerous civic and community activities. Chief Singleton's training and expertise in the field of front line law enforcement adds a dimension that will no doubt lend credit to the work of the commission, as claims are reviewed and decision are made. He and his wife Peggy have two children, and reside in Florence, Alabama.

Barbara Brown

Mrs. Barbara Brown was appointed to the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission as the crime victim representative to serve a four-year term in November 1996 by Governor Fob James. She was re-appointed to serve a second term on February 13, 2001 by Governor Don Siegelman. In 2004, Mrs. Brown was reappointed for another four year term by Governor Bob Riley. Mrs. Brown is the mother of two murdered sons, Brandon Brown, age 19 years, and Horace Jr. age 28 years. Although no arrests have been made in either of her son's brutal murders, she does not allow herself to rest from seeing that the murderers are brought to justice. Effective April 3, 2001, Mrs. Brown and others saw the passage of a Resolution designating that April 4, 2001, be declared as National Anti-Murder Awareness Day, and The Purple Ribbon as the National Symbol Against Violence. Mrs. Brown's attitude of "we can all do something, and should never stop trying to make a difference for crime victims," makes her an outstanding role model for everyone. She also hosts a weekly radio program entitled Victims Voices. Barbara and her husband Horace have a daughter and reside in Selma, Alabama.

HISTORY

State Agency Formed

Created by the Legislature in May of 1984, Alabama became the 40th state to pass a law to compensate victims of violent crime. Alabama has a unique program that appears to incorporate the best of many other states' programs. The law is broad about the types of crimes and services for which victims may be assisted.

One of the features of Alabama's law which makes it unique is the requirement to include on the three member Commission a victim of a crime of violence who suffered serious personal injury, or a member of such victim's immediate family or a member of a deceased victim's immediate family if the deceased victim died because of a crime of violence. This provision insures that each claim is viewed through the eyes of a victim, and is seen as objectively as possible. The law also provides that one member be a law enforcement officer with a minimum of 10 years experience in or with a law enforcement agency, which has among its primary duties and responsibilities the investigation of violent crimes. Again, a certain perspective lends itself to the decision making process.

Law Amended

In 1986, amendments to the ACVCC law were passed to require all felons to pay a victim assessment fee and to make other administrative improvements.

In the 1990 Regular Session of the Legislature, amendments to the law passed which increased the limits on funeral expenses from $2,000.00 to $3,000.00 and made several changes to expedite claims processing. This new amendment also provided additional funding for District Attorneys to allow for at least one Victim Service Officer in each circuit.

In the 1995 Regular Session of the Legislature, amendments to the law were passed which authorized payments for sexual assault examinations; defined reasons for diminishing or denying compensation awards; and clarified that additional costs and assessments shall be assessed in certain juvenile and youthful offender cases.

Also in 1995, Alabama amended its Constitution to include certain rights for victims of crime. This Amendment to the Constitution, as stated in the Enabling Legislation, allows that within 72 hours of the criminal event, the law enforcement agency investigating the crime will provide to the victim a form in which to invoke their rights under the Constitution. Further, the form given by the law enforcement officer will tell the victim of the existence and availability of financial assistance from the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission. The affect of this legislation has made it possible that more victims are notified of the commission.

As of May 1, 1998, during the 1997/1998 regular Session, the law was again amended to make the following changes:

- Criminally Injurious Conduct shall include the act of terrorism as defined in Section 2331 of Title 18, United States Code, committed outside of the United States, against a resident of this state.
- Raised the maximum award allowance from $10,000.00 to $15,000.00.

- Increased the allowable for expenses relating to funeral, cremation, or burial from $3,000.00 to $5,000.00.
- Increased compensation for work loss, replacement services loss, and dependents' replacement service loss from $200.00 to $400.00 per week.
- Raised the maximum allowable expense not to exceed $5,000.00 for all future economic loss.
- Clarifying language was added to 15-23-4 to keep the names and addresses of the victim or claimant confidential.
- Language was added to 15-23-12 to clarify the circumstances for filing with the commission later than one year after the injury or death upon which the claim is based "unless" the commission finds good cause.
- Language was added to 15-23-12 to clarify reporting to a law enforcement officer "later than" 72 hours after the crime occurrence, unless the commission finds there was good cause for the failure to report within that time.
- Raised the commission members' pay from thirty dollars ($30.00) to seventy-five dollars ($75.00) per day for attendance of commission meetings.

History of Compensation Payments

Over the past twenty years, the ACVCC program has received over ??,000 applications from crime victims, and awarded more than $62,000,000 for services rendered them. The calculations below show the years the claims were received and the total dollars paid.

CLAIMS PROCESS

The Compensation Process

The Alabama Crime Victims Compensation (ACVCC) is dedicated to providing financial compensation to innocent victims of violent crime to the extent possible in a sensitive and timely manner. The Alabama law allows for administrative rules to be published, to ensure that each applicant is knowledgeable about the compensation process. The agency structure is as follows:

The purpose of ACVCC's Administration section is to oversee the day-to-day functioning of the agency. Administration is composed of the Executive Director's office, Staff Attorney/Personnel, Executive Secretary, Restitution Recovery, and Reception.

The Executive Director (Director) reviews all claims prior to the Commission meeting and renders decisions on claims less than $2,000. The Director is accountable for the efficiency of the Commission.

The Executive Secretary functions as an assistant to both the Executive Director and the Legal/Personnel Department. This position provides crucial support services in both these areas.

Legal/Personnel is responsible for agency legal responsibilities including appeal hearings and court appearances. The attorney also manages all agency personnel matters and promulgates rules, regulations and policies and procedures, at the Commission's request.

In 2002, the ACVCC implemented a designated Restitution Recovery Unit to seek ways to improve the collection restitution, subrogation fees and other court ordered monies. Two positions were revised through the Alabama State Personnel Department (that consists of two Crime Victims Compensation Specialists with restitution officer designations). The role of the Restitution Recovery Officer is to:

- Work with DA's and circuit clerks to ensure the court orders or amends restitution for ACVCC.
- Provide information to VSO's and restitution officers to assist them in collecting outstanding restitution.
- Provide training to court officials, various agencies and the general public.
- Notify the Parole Board of any outstanding restitution owed by inmates who are scheduled for a parole hearing.
- Notify victims and civil attorneys of ACVCC's subrogation rights when civil suits arise out of the violent crime.

The Receptionist answers incoming calls to agency. Often, the Receptionist establishes the first contact with a victim. This post also distributes all mail, routes incoming telecommunications, as well as disseminates compensation applications and literature.

The Claims Division is responsible for processing incoming applications from victims and claimants requesting financial assistance with losses due to their victimization. Administrative Support Assistants receive new claims, enter them into the system and do all preliminary work to establish the eligibility of the claim.

Claims are then assigned to a Crime Victims Compensation Specialist for investigation. The Specialist determines eligibility based upon the law and the Administrative Code. After contacting all parties associated with the claim (Victim/Claimant, Law Enforcement, Forensics, medical service providers, Court officials and others), the completed claim is presented to the Commission or Executive Director for decision.

Two Claims Divisions comprise three distinct areas of claims:

- Regular Claims pertains to the majority of claims received that are not specific to homicide, domestic violence or sexual assault. These claims are assault, kidnapping, manslaughter, robbery, sodomy, leaving the scene of an accident and DUI related accidents, stalking, attempted rape, child physical abuse, attempted murder, harassment and human trafficking.
- Homicide claims are investigated by one full time Crime Victims Compensation Specialist in each team. The Specialists are supported by Administrative Support Assistants and team Claims Managers. During the last fiscal year, the homicide Specialists processed 312 homicide claims for presentation to the Commission for decision. The homicide specialists are very aware that each of these claims represents a family devastated by tragedy. As in all claims, each claimant/victim/survivor is contacted personally.
- The Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault unit handles two other areas of specialization. Claims for the domestic violence cases are available through certified shelters and are limited to $1000 for a victim's immediate out-of-pocket expenses. Additional expenses exceeding the $1000 are applied for through the regular claim application if the victim meets criteria for both types of claims. The ACVCC provides training to domestic violence shelter staff to ensure eligible victims receive any assistance available.

In sexual assault cases, the ACVCC provides for the cost of medical examinations for the purpose of gathering evidence and treatment for preventing venereal disease. When medical personnel evaluate a sexual assault victim and a forensic evidence kit is collected, the bill for these services is forwarded to ACVCC for consideration of payment. This program began in 1995 to ensure sexual assault victims would not have to pay for the collection of forensic evidence. Additional expenses incurred by sexual assault victims can be applied for through the regular claim application. ACVCC provides training to hospitals, rape crisis centers and SANE clinics to make certain the charges for the forensic evidence collection are not billed to sexual assault victims.

In addition to investigating claims, the Crime Victims Compensation Specialists act as advocates on behalf of crime victims in obtaining needed services. Through the personal contacts with victims, the Specialists are able to discern what the victims/claimant/survivors needs are and assist them with referrals to community resources for counseling and other assistance.

The Information Technology (IT) Services Division of the ACVCC manages the technology used by the staff of the ACVCC in providing services to victims. The IT Division:

- performs as the agency's System Administrator, directing the daily activities of the Technical Services section.
- serves as the agency contact with outside vendors and other state agencies for issues involving technology.
- establishes hardware and software requirements of the agency and recommends product purchases to meet these needs.
- provides training, serves as the technical training contact, and provides technical assistance to agency staff as needed.

- serves as the Database Administrator which includes overseeing design, implementation, and mining of agency data to ensure proper production of documentation, correspondence, and statistics.
- performs as the agency's E-mail Postmaster and as the agency contact for the Unified State E-mail Service.
- staff performs as the agency's Help Desk and maintains all backup materials of the database and network.
- assists with data correction, validation, and integrity on the agency database, and maintains the agency web site.

The Accounting Division is responsible for:

- processing all monthly claims checks to victims, claimants, and service providers.
- revenue collection which consists of collection of city court traffic infraction and misdemeanor and/or violation of a municipal ordinance, and any felonies. In addition to city fines, county fines are also collected in misdemeanor, felonies, and victim assessment fees, as well as city and county restitution and civil suit litigation.
- manages accounts payable and receivables and prepares the agency budget as by the ACVCC law mandates. They prepare monthly financial reports and maintain agency inventory.

Very few compensation programs in America have the advantage of having an accounting division within the compensation program. The opportunity to totally process a claim, from beginning to culmination, within the agency is beneficial to victims. The Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission is a free standing state agency, not affiliated with any other agency. Claims investigations, Accounting, Information Technology, Legal and Personnel, are solely functions of this office.

Filing a Claim for Victim Compensation

How to Apply

A crime victim or their representative (claimant) can apply by completing an application. Anyone requesting information may call (334) 242-4007 or toll free in Alabama, at 1-800-541-9388 (victims only), or you may visit our website at www.acvcc.state.al.us. Also, applications and brochures are generally available at district attorney's offices, sheriffs' offices, and police departments. The local district attorneys' offices have designated an employee, or has on staff, a victim service officer (VSO), who is available to inform and assist victims with compensation applications. Also, the staff at ACVCC is available to answer questions and assist in completing the application.

Who Can Apply

Any person who is an innocent victim of criminally injurious conduct and who has sustained personal injuries as a result, or a surviving spouse or child of a victim who died as a result of criminally injurious conduct, or a person authorized to act on behalf of a victim or a dependent, is eligible to make a claim.

What Compensation Covers?

As of May 1998, the maximum award is $15,000 with limitations on certain expenses. The award may cover the following:

- Medical care - including doctor and hospital care, dental expenses, prescriptions, medical supplies, inpatient psychiatric care, etc. This does not include expenses covered by insurance.
- Counseling expenses - including counselor, psychologist, or psychiatric fees for counseling, unless covered by another source. Limited to 50 sessions or $6,250, or up to $8,000 for exigent circumstances. Payments are limited to $80 per hour for licensed professional counselors and social workers; $100 per hour for psychologists; and $125 per hour for psychiatrists. $60 per hour for group therapy.
- Funeral expenses - including funeral home expenses, cremation, burial expenses including monument. The total amount allowable for funeral costs is $5,000. Expenses for flowers, clothing or limousines cannot be considered.
- Work Loss - including the victim, claimant, or immediate family member's net (take-home) weekly pay for a reasonable length of absence from work. There is a maximum of $400 per week on work loss, annual leave, sick leave, personal leave or holiday up to $10,400 or 26 weeks may be considered.
- Rehabilitation expenses - including vocational or physical therapy, if not covered by another agency.
- Property expenses - including only property taken as evidence by law enforcement which was soiled or damaged as the result of the violent crime. This does not include automobile repair, insurance deductible, appliances, or money. Damaged property, not to exceed $500 for clothing, $1,000 for real property, or $1,000 for damaged property. There is a maximum of $1,000 on property expenses.
- Moving expenses - including security deposits, utility deposits, and the cost to move. There is a maximum $1,000 on moving. This is only considered in extreme circumstances when the victim is in imminent physical danger and when the offense occurred at home.
- Future economic loss - future or additional expenses of loss to the victim or victim's dependents. Must be justified with explanation of how losses were calculated. There is a maximum of $5000.
- Replacement services loss - expenses claimant would not have suffered had a victim lived. There is a maximum of $1500.

In fiscal year '03-'04, due to budget constraints, the Commission approved an emergency rule to provide 30% of eligible medical expenses to service providers. If the victim provided payment for medical expenses, the victim was compensated at 100% for eligible out-of-pocket expenses.

The Commission pays only those expenses that are not covered by another source, such as insurance, workman's compensation, etc. The victim or claimant must not receive compensation from two sources. Stolen property, checks, or cash are not eligible expenses.

In all other categories, the victim has been and will continue to be compensated at 100% of eligible expenses.

Supplemental Awards

Provision is also made for payment of a supplemental award as additional bills arise. The victim or claimant need only submit the bills to the Commission as part of the original claim request. The Commission will review the supplemental request for eligibility. In cases where the compensation request for a supplemental award is $1,000 or less, the executive director may rule on the eligibility of the claim.

Emergency Awards

Provisions is also made for payment of an emergency award in cases where urgent need is apparent and requested.

Special Awards for Domestic Violence Victims

Provisions are made to meet the urgent needs of victims of family violence. A special emergency award is available under certain conditions as established in the Rules and Regulations of the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission.

Special Awards for Sexual Assault Crimes

In July of 1995, the ACVCC law was amended to allow medical providers to submit bills for the charges of medical examinations for the purpose of gathering evidence and treatment for preventing venereal disease in sexual abuse crimes and offenses. This is an effort to relieve the victim from being further victimized when asked to pay for the gathering of criminal evidence.

What Happens After I Apply?

When an application is received in the office of the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission several steps are taken. The application is entered into the processing system, and given a number. This number remains constant throughout the processing time. An Administrative Support Assistant, who is assigned to receive claims by county, reviews the claim, and sends out letters informing the claimant of the process, and asks for additional information as needed. The claim is then put in line for investigation.

Ineligible Claims

Compensation shall not be awarded in any of the following circumstances:

1. If the claim is filed with the Commission later than one year from the date of the crime, unless the Commission finds good cause.
2. If the victim of the claimant was the offender, or was an accomplice of the offender.
3. If the award would unjustly benefit the offender or accomplice of the offender.
4. If the crime was reported to law enforcement officer later than 72 hours after its occurrence, unless the Commission finds good cause.
5. If the Commission finds the victim or the claimant has not fully cooperated with law enforcement.
6. If the Commission finds the victim was responsible for the cause of the injury, or death.
7. If the Commission finds the victim or claimant was convicted of a felony.
8. If the victimization was a result of a property crime and not a violent crime with injury.

Investigation

The investigation is to determine what happened to the victim, and if the case meets the eligibility criteria based on the ACVCC law and the ACVCC Rules and Regulations. Additionally, all bills for payment are verified with the medical/service provider for accuracy. Other investigations relating to the crime such as forensics evaluation, mental health evaluation, and other evaluations are performed as needed in order to make a recommendation for payment. The investigation also includes determining the criminal charges against the defendant, and if a trial has been held. This is done to determine if restitution and other court ordered money is ordered by the Courts. When the investigation is finalized, a summary statement of the victimization is presented to the three-member Commission at the monthly meeting.

The Commission Decides

The Commission holds open public meeting on the second Thursday of each month and other meetings at such times and places as its members may elect. From time to time, the commission must change the regularly scheduled meetings, and will publish these changes in the newspaper.

The Commissioners review the summary of facts, and render a decision based on the facts presented. In cases where the compensation request is $2,000 or less, the executive director rules on the eligibility of the claim. If the request for compensation is approved, notices are sent to the victim or claimant informing them of the payment and to whom payment is made. Likewise, the same information is sent to the district attorney, the probation office, and the court clerk, so the judge may have this information at sentencing or restitution hearings.

Appeals

If the request for compensation is denied, the claimant may request an appeal, and must do so in writing to the Commission within thirty (30) days of the notification of the denial. The Commission will then hear the case with an impartial hearing officer present for re-consideration of the request and render a decision. Following the final decision of the appeal, notices are then forwarded to the victim or claimant informing them of the Commission decision.

The Commission Philosophy

Every claim that is received at ACVCC is reviewed in its individual capacity. The Commission is dedicated to provide assistance to the extent allowable under the law, and strives each day to make the claims process as speedy and as victim-friendly as possible.

FUNDING SOURCES

Court Costs

The Alabama Legislature intends to provide a means whereby victims of violent crimes and their dependents may be provided compensation in the amount of actual expenses incurred as a direct result of criminal acts of other persons. The amount of all costs is paid through the courts and remitted to the commission each month by the clerk of the courts. The clerk is to keep accurate records of the amounts due the commission for benefits of the fund

The funds collected by the clerk come from court costs, victim assessment fees, restitution and civil suit reimbursements.

Two dollars($2) is derived from each moving traffic infraction.

Ten dollars ($10) is derived from each misdemeanor violation.

Fifteen dollars ($15) is derived where the offense constitutes a felony.

Other funding sources for the agency comes from miscellaneous donations and federal grants. These sources are explained later in the report.

Victim Assessment Fees

Prior to 1990, the special victim assessment fee was ordered on felonies and ranged from twenty-five dollars ($25) to ten thousand dollars ($10,000). This was amended in 1990 to add a victim assessment fee onto all misdemeanors.

Also amended in 1990 was the felony victim assessment which increased the minimum judges could order from $25 to $50 with the first $25 going to ACVCC, and the second going to the Office of Prosecution Services and any amount over the minimum going to ACVCC. The victim assessment fees are mandatory but the judge does have discretion in the amount of the fee ordered. Judges are required to order the assessment on juvenile and youthful offender cases as well as adult cases.

Restitution and Civil Suit Reimbursements

The ACVCC Law allows for the Commission to be subrogated to all rights of a claimant to receive or recover from a collateral source such as civil lawsuits or insurance payments to the extent that compensation was awarded.

Donations

The ACVCC Law allows for the acceptance of gifts and donations from other sources in order to implement the law under this section, although very few funds are derived through this provision. Instances where donations are received, is in honor or memory of a loved one who has died violently, or when a community, group or organization wishes to make donations to the fund for special events to increase public awareness of the plight of crime victims.

Federal Grant Funds

The Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) was passed in 1984 by an act of the United States Congress. The U.S. Department of Justice mandated by VOCA, collects fines and fees from offenders convicted of federal violations. Each year these federal funds are made eligible to the states in the form of federal grants, and are available to each state. ACVCC makes application for reimbursements dollars in an amount not to exceed 40% of the total dollars received from the courts and paid to crime victims for services rendered to them.

The U.S. Attorneys, the Federal Bureau of Prisons, the Federal Probation Officers, and of course the Victims of Crime Fund deserve our thanks for their diligence in collecting the federal fines and disbursing those awards to the states. These federal funds make it possible to stretch state dollars to enable ACVCC to provide compensation benefits to Alabama victims.

§ 15-23-2. Legislative findings, etc.

The Legislature hereby finds, determines and declares that victims of violent crime are often reduced to bereft and destitute circumstances as a result of the criminal acts perpetrated against them, that the financial or economic resources of such victims and their dependents are in many instances distressed or depleted as a result of injuries inflicted upon them by violent criminals.

That the general social and economic welfare of such victims and their dependents is and ought to be intimately affected with the public interest, that the deplorable plight of these unfortunate citizens should not go unnoticed by our institutions and agencies of government.

The Legislature hereby further finds, determines and declares that it is to the benefit of all that victims of violence and their dependents be assisted financially and socially whenever possible.

To this end the Legislature intends to provide a means whereby victims of violent crime and their dependents may be provided compensation in the amount of actual expenses incurred as a direct result of criminal acts of other persons.

The provisions of this article are to be construed so as to accomplish this purpose and to promote the same which is hereby declared to be the public policy of this state. (Acts 1984, No. 84-658, p. 1308, § 2.)

(2) To a claimant who was the offender, or an accomplice of the offender or who encouraged or in any way participated in the criminally injurious conduct.

(3) If the award would unjustly benefit the offender or accomplice of the offender.

(4) The criminally injurious conduct resulting in injury or death was reported to a law enforcement officer later than 72 hours after its occurrence, unless the commission finds there was good cause for the failure to report within that time.

(b) Compensation otherwise payable to a claimant may be diminished or denied to the extent that the economic loss is recouped from collateral sources; or the extent that the degree of responsibility for the cause of the injury or death is attributable to the victim as determined by the commission.

(c) The commission, upon finding that the claimant or victim has not fully cooperated with appropriate law enforcement agencies, may deny, withdraw, or reduce an award of compensation.

(d) The commission, on its own motion or on request of the claimant, may reconsider a decision granting or denying an award or determining its amount. An order on reconsideration of an award shall not require a refund of amounts previously paid, unless the award was obtained by fraud. The right of reconsideration does not affect the finality of a commission decision for the purpose of judicial review. (Acts 1984, No. 84-658, p. 1308, § 12; Acts 1990, No. 90-470, p. 677, § 3; Acts 1995, No. 95-494, p. 994, § 2; Act 98-492, § 1.)

The 1998 amendment effective May 1, 1998, in subsection (a) inserted "in any of the following circumstances", in subdivision (1) substituted "A claim" for "Unless the claim" and substituted "based, unless" for "based or", in subdivisions (1) and (4) substituted "later than" for "within"; in subdivision (4) substituted "The criminally" for "Unless the criminally" and substituted "occurrence, unless the commission" for "occurrence or the commission"; in subsection (b) substituted

"(1) That" for "that", substituted "(2) Of" for "or to the extent that" and inserted "is" following "death"; and made nonsubstantive changes.

Code Commissioner's Notes. - Act 98-492, which amended this section and was approved by the Governor on May 1, 1998, provided that the act "shall become operative on the first day of the third month following its enactment."

§ 15-23-13. Award not contingent on prosecution or conviction of offender; effect of proof of conviction; suspension of proceedings under article.

Except as provided elsewhere in this article, an award may be made whether or not any person is prosecuted or convicted. Proof of conviction of a person whose acts give rise to a claim is conclusive evidence that the crime was committed, unless an application for rehearing, an appeal of the conviction or certiorari is pending, or a rehearing or new trial has been ordered. The commission may suspend the proceedings pending disposition of criminal prosecution that has been commenced or is imminent, but may make a tentative award under this section. (Acts 1984, No. 84-658, p. 1308, § 13.)

§ 15-23-14. Award of compensation subrogates commission to rights of claimant as to collateral source; funds recovered from collateral source held in trust for commission; disposition of trust funds; notice of action to recover damages; restitution hearings.

(a) If compensation is awarded, the commission shall be subrogated to all the rights of a claimant to receive or recover from a collateral source to the extent that compensation was awarded.

(b) In the event the claimant recovers compensation, other than under the provisions of this article, for injuries or death resulting from criminally injurious conduct, the claimant shall retain, as trustee for the commission, so much of the recovered funds as necessary to reimburse the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Fund to the extent that compensation was awarded to the claimant from that fund. The funds retained in trust shall be promptly paid over to the commission and deposited in the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Fund.

Whenever the commission shall deem it necessary to protect, maintain or enforce the commission's right to subrogation or to exercise any of its powers or to carry out any of its duties or responsibilities the commission may initiate legal proceedings or intervene in legal proceedings.

(c) If a claimant initiates any legal proceeding to recover restitution or damages related to the criminally injurious conduct upon which compensation is claimed or awarded, the claimant shall give the commission written notice within 15 days of the filing of the action. The commission may intervene in the proceeding as a complainant to recover the compensation awarded. If a claimant fails to give such written notice to the commission within the stated time period, or prior to any attempt by claimant to reach a negotiated settlement of claims for recovery of damages related to the criminally injurious conduct, the commission's right of subrogation to receive or recover funds from claimant, to the extent that compensation was awarded by the commission, shall not be reduced in any amount or percentage by the costs incurred by claimant attributable to such legal proceedings or settlement; including, but not limited to, attorney's fees, expert witness fees, investigative costs or cost of court. If such notice is given, attorney fees may be awarded in an amount not to exceed 15 percent of the amount subrogated to the commission.

(d) Whenever compensation is awarded to a claimant who is entitled to restitution from a criminal defendant, the commission may initiate restitution hearings in such criminal proceedings or intervene in the same. The commission shall be entitled to receive restitution in such proceedings to the extent that compensation was awarded. The commission shall be subrogated to all the rights and remedies of such claimant for the collection of restitution to the extent compensation was awarded; provided however, the commission shall be exempt from the payment of any fees or other charges for the recording of restitution orders in the offices of the judges of probate. (Acts 1984, No. 84-658, p. 1308, § 14; Acts 1986, No. 86-510, p. 993, § 4; Acts 1990, No. 90-470, p. 677, § 4.)

Collateral references.—Civil action for damages under state Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Acts (RICO) for losses from racketeering activity. 62 ALR4th 654.

§15-23-15. Amount and method of compensation; future economic loss generally; exemption from state and local taxes, etc.

(a) Compensation for work loss, replacement services loss, dependent's economic loss, and dependent's replacement service loss may not exceed four hundred dollars ($400) per week.

(b) Compensation payable to a victim and to all other claimants sustaining economic loss because of injury to or death of that victim may not exceed fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000) in the aggregate.

(c) The commission may provide for the payment to a claimant in a lump sum or in installments. At the request of the claimant, the commission may convert future economic loss, other than allowable expense, to a lump sum, but only upon a finding by the commission of either of the following:

(1) That the award in a lump sum will promote the interests of the claimant; or

(2) That the present value of all future economic loss, other than allowable expense, does not exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000.00).

(d) An award payable in installments for future economic loss may be made only for a period as to which the commission can reasonably determine future economic loss. An award payable in installments for future economic loss may be modified by the commission upon its findings that a material and substantial change of circumstances has occurred.

(e) An award shall not be subject to state or municipal taxation or to execution, attachment, or garnishment, except as the same may pertain to an obligation for the support of dependent children or as the same may pertain to a creditor which has provided products, services, or accommodations, the costs of which are included in the award.

(f) An assignment by the claimant to any future award under the provisions of this article is unenforceable, except any of the following assignments:

(1) An assignment of any award for work loss to assure payment of court-ordered child support.

(2) An assignment of any award for allowable expense to the extent that the benefits are for the cost of products, services, or accommodations necessitated by the injury or death on which the claim is based and are provided or to be provided by the assignee. (Acts 1984, No. 84-658, p. 1308, § 15; Acts 1990, No. 90-470, p. 677, § 5; Act 98-492, § 1.)

The 1998 amendment, effective May 1, 1998, in subsection (a) substituted "four hundred ($400)" for "$200.00"; in subsection (b) substituted "fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000)" for "$10,000.00"; in subsection (c), in subdivision (2) substituted "five thousand dollars ($5,000)" for "$3,000.00"; in subsection (f) inserted "any of the following assignments" following "except", in subdivision (1) substituted "support; or" for "support.", in subdivision (2) inserted "an" preceding "allowable"; and made nonsubstantive changes.

Code Commissioner's Notes. - Act 98-492, which amended this section and was approved by the Governor on May 1, 1998, provided that the act "shall become operative on the first day of the third month following its enactment."

§ 15-23-16. Alabama Crime Victim Compensation Fund; created; purposes; composition, administered or managed by commission.

- (a) There is hereby established a special fund to be known as the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Fund.
 - (b) The fund shall be placed under the management or administration of the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission for purposes of providing compensation or other benefits to crime victims and for purposes of implementing this article.
 - (c) The fund shall consist of all moneys collected or received by the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission from any source.
 - (d) The commission shall have control of the funds not inconsistent with this article and with the laws of Alabama.
 - (e) All moneys of the commission shall be covered into the State Treasury or deposited in a special trust account and may be withdrawn therefrom by vouchers or check signed by the chair of the commission pursuant to authorization given by the commissioner. All investments of moneys in the fund shall be either deposited with the State Treasurer for safekeeping upon receipt of the State Treasurer therefor or deposited with the bank in a custodial account. The commission shall have authority to expend moneys in the fund in accordance with this article and to invest any moneys so received pending other needs therefor in any investments which are legal investments for insurance companies under the laws of the state.
 - (f) No member of the commission shall have any interest in the investments or receive any commission with respect thereto.
 - (g) It shall be the duty of the commission to keep detailed permanent records of all expenditures and disbursements from the fund.
 - (h) The commission is authorized to accept and use funds available to it from all sources, such as grants, appropriations, gifts, donations, and other sources for purposes of implementing this article.
 - (i) The commission may not award any moneys for the six months immediately following passage of this article.
 - (j) The commission may not award or promise to award more moneys than are available in the fund.
 - (k) The commission shall not spend more than 25 percent of its funds for administrative costs.
- (Acts 1984, No. 84-658, p. 1308, § 16; Acts 1995, No. 95-494, § 3.)

The 1995 amendment, effective July 27, 1995, deleted "the provisions of" preceding "this article" throughout this section; substituted "not inconsistent" for "as shall not be inconsistent" in subsection (d); deleted "any" following "deposited with" in the second sentence of subsection (e); deleted "any" following "interest in" in subsection (f); and made nonsubstantive changes.

§ 15-23-17. Assessment of additional costs and penalties; collection and disposition of additional assessments, etc.

- (a) In all criminal and quasi-criminal proceedings for the violation of laws of the state or municipal ordinances which are tried in any court or tribunal in this state, wherein the defendant is adjudged guilty or pleads guilty, or is adjudicated a juvenile delinquent or youthful offender, or wherein a bond is forfeited and the result of the forfeiture is a final disposition of the case or wherein any penalty is imposed, there is imposed an additional cost of court in the amount of two dollars ($2) for each traffic infraction, ten dollars ($10) in each proceeding where the offense constitutes a misdemeanor and/or a violation of a municipal ordinance other than traffic infractions, and fifteen dollars ($15) in each proceeding where the offense constitutes a felony, but there shall be no additional costs imposed for violations relating to parking of vehicles.
The amount of all costs shall be remitted by the person or authority collecting the costs to the chair of the commission on the tenth day of each month next succeeding that in which the cost is paid. It shall be the duty of the clerk or other authority collecting the court costs to keep accurate records of the amounts due the commission for the benefit of the fund under this section.
- (b) In addition to the imposition of any other costs, penalties, or fines imposed pursuant to law, any person convicted or pleading guilty to a felony or a misdemeanor or a violation for which the person is adjudicated a juvenile delinquent, or a youthful offender, shall be ordered to pay a victim compensation assessment of not less than fifty dollars ($50), nor more than ten thousand dollars ($10,000), for each felony for which the person convicted or adjudicated and not less than twenty-five dollars ($25.00), nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000.00), for each misdemeanor or violation for which the person was convicted, adjudicated, or otherwise disposed of when the court orders that costs be paid. In imposing this penalty, the court shall consider factors such as the severity of the crime, the prior criminal record, and the ability of the defendant to pay, as well as the economic impact of the victim compensation assessment on the dependents of the defendant. Any person adjudicated a juvenile delinquent shall be ordered to pay a victim compensation assessment of not less than twenty-five dollars ($25), nor more than one thousand dollars ($1,000), for each adjudication, regardless of the underlying charge, but the assessment or penalty authorized by this subsection shall not be assessed or collected for any conservation, forestry, or water safety offense, nor any traffic offense, except those that are punishable as a felony offense or involve the operation or actual physical control of any vehicle while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs, or reckless driving. If a court fails to specifically impose an assessment required by this section, the clerk of court shall automatically assess a victim compensation assessment in the minimum amount provided herein. The additional assessment or penalty shall be collected by the clerk of court insuring that the first twenty-five dollars ($25) of each felony assessment and twelve dollars and fifty cents ($12.50) of each misdemeanor shall be promptly paid over to the commission. The second twenty-five dollars ($25) of each felony assessment and twelve dollars and fifty cents ($12.50) of each misdemeanor assessment shall be promptly paid to the Office of Prosecution Services. Any victim assessment fees ordered above the minimum shall be paid to the commission fund.

(c) The Office of Prosecution Services shall create a Victim Services Fund and the assessments received by the Office of Prosecution Services shall be deposited into the Victim Services Fund. The funds received by the Office of Prosecution Services shall be distributed by the Executive Committee of the Alabama District Attorneys Association to the various district attorneys' offices to employ a minimum of one full-time victim service officer in each circuit and to provide other direct services to victims as needed. (Acts 1984, No. 84-658, p. 1308, § 17; Acts 1986, No. 86-510, § 5; Acts 1990, No. 90-470, p. 677, § 6; Acts 1995, No. 95-494, § 4.)

The 1995 amendment, effective July 27, 1995, in subsection (a), in the first paragraph, inserted "or is adjudicated a juvenile delinquent or youthful offender," and substituted "but" for "provided, however, that"; in subsection (b), in the first sentence inserted "or a violation for which the person is adjudicated a juvenile delinquent, or youthful offender," inserted "or adjudicated," inserted "or violation," and inserted "adjudicated," added the present third and fourth sentences, substituted "insuring that" for "imposing the same and" in the present fifth sentence; and made nonsubstantive changes.

The words "severity of the crime" contemplate that some crimes are more reprehensible than others and that they produce greater emotional suffering and societal disdain; therefore, the trial judge was authorized to consider the fact that the crime was "severe" because of its noneconomic impact upon family, friends and society. Ex parte Lewis, 556 So. 2d 370 (Ala. 1989).

List not exhaustive. — Although the legislature specifically listed several factors that a sentencing judge should consider, this list is not exhaustive. Ex parte Lewis, 556 So. 2d 370 (Ala. 1989).

Authorization to impose both fine and assessment. — The trial judge was authorized to impose both a fine and an assessment under that Crime Victims Compensation Act and that the total amount of the fine and assessment does not constitute an "excessive fine" since the $10,000 assessment and the $3,000 fine are both authorized, under the provisions of this section and § 13A-5-11, respectively. Ex parte Lewis, 556 So. 2d 370 (Ala. 1989).

Where both the fine and the assessment imposed upon the appellant were within the statutory limits, the total amount imposed did not constitute an "excessive fine." Garner v. State, 606 So. 2d 177 (Ala. Crim. App. 1992).

The Legislature has the power to authorize both a fine and an assessment under the provisions of the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Act, and that the amount of this particular assessment is not "excessive." Ex parte Lewis, 556 So. 2d 370 (Ala. 1989).

Where defendant charged before amendment but sentence after amendment — Where defendant was charged with misdemeanor prior to effective date of the 1990 amendment, but was sentenced after amendment took effect, defendant could not be ordered to pay victim compensation assessment. Taylor v. State, 586 So. 2d 964 (Ala. Crim. App. 1991).

§ 15-23-18. Penalties—Influence peddling.

(a) Any person who confers, offers, or agrees to confer anything of value upon a member, agent or employee of the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission with the intent that such member's or agent's or employee's vote, opinion, judgment or exercise of discretion or other action in such member's or agent's or employee's official capacity will thereby be influenced shall be guilty of a Class B felony.

(b) Any member, agent or employee of the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission who shall solicit, accept, or agree to solicit or accept anything of value upon an agreement or understanding that such member's or agent's or employee's vote, opinion, judgment or exercise of discretion or other action as such member, agent, or employee will thereby be influenced shall be guilty of a Class B felony.

(b) A “potential conflicting interest” exists, but is not limited to, when the member, agent or employee of the commission is a director, president, general manager or similar executive officer, or owns directly or indirectly a substantial portion of any nongovernmental entity participating in the transaction.

(c) Public disclosure shall mean a public announcement and written notification to the Attorney General.

(d) Failing to disclose a conflict of interest is a Class C felony. (Acts 1984, No. 84-658, p. 1308, § 19.)

§ 15-23-21. Penalties—Furnishing false information; failure to disclose material fact, etc.

(a) Any person who shall knowingly furnish any false information to the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission or to any member, agent or employee thereof with the intent to defraud the said commission; or with the intent to obtain an award of compensation for a person not entitled to receive the same shall be guilty of a Class C felony.

(b) Any person who shall knowingly fail or omit to disclose a material fact or circumstance to the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission or to any member, agent or employee thereof which is material to a claim for an award of compensation with the intent to defraud the commission or with the intent to cause a person to obtain or receive an award of compensation to which such person is not entitled shall be guilty of a Class C felony. (Acts 1984, No. 84-658, p. 1308, § 21.)

§ 15-23-22. Penalties—Unauthorized control over money or securities of commission.

(b) Any person who shall knowingly obtain by deception any control over any money or securities held on behalf of or in trust for the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission with intent to deprive such commission of such money or securities shall be guilty of a Class C felony. ALABAMA ADMINISTRATIVE CODE
ALABAMA CRIME VICTIMS COMPENSATION COMMISSION
262-X-4-.1. DEFINITIONS

262-X-2-.01 General Information and Definitions.

Purpose: It is the intent of the Legislature and the purpose of the Alabama Crime Victims Compensation Commission (ACVCC) to provide financial and other assistance for victims of violent crime for the allowable expenses that are incurred as a direct result of victimization. Applicants must not have contributed to their victimization or have been convicted of felonies or acts of violence against others after making application for compensation. Other eligibility requirements that must be met are listed in the following sections.

Program Description: ACVCC provides financial assistance for allowable expenses to victims of violent crime who have suffered personal injury, psychological injury or death. Compensation may be reduced or denied based on contribution to one's own victimization as defined in the following sections. The program provides compensation for a number of services, which are listed in the following sections. ACVCC does not award compensation for expenses, which are paid by a collateral source. The program also has a statutory entitlement to subrogation in instances in which a claimant has received recovery from a collateral source after having been paid by ACVCC.

The maximum amount of compensation that may be awarded in any one claim is $15,000. Other limitations for specific categories are addressed in the following chapters.

262-X-4-.03. CONTRIBUTION TO OFFENSE

262-X-2-.03 Contribution To Offense.

Compensation may not be awarded "to a claimant who was the offender, or an accomplice of the offender, or who encouraged or in any way participated in the criminally injurious conduct." Contribution to the offense will be determined by the actions of the victim at the time of or immediately preceding the crime.

- (a) Compensation may be reduced or denied based on the victim's degree of contribution to the offense. The reduction or denial will be based on the extent of the degree of responsibility for the cause of injury or death attributable to the victim/claimant's actions and/or involvement in the events that led to the crime. Compensation may be reduced in whole or in part if contributory conduct is determined.
- (b) Eligibility for compensation can be affected by a victim/claimant's involvement in the events that led to the crime. The victim/claimant's actions do not have to be illegal to be deemed contributory conduct. Such actions must relate significantly to the occurrence that caused the victimization and be such that a reasonable or prudent person would know that the actions could lead to their victimization.
- (c) Contributory conduct is a voluntary action by the victim, which directly or indirectly, produced the victim's injury at the time of the victimization which gives rise to the compensation claim. This action may include.

- but is not limited to, provocation, drug use, alcohol intoxication, consent or incitement by the victim.
- (d) Contributory conduct is a factor when the victim knowingly participated in conduct that:
 - (1) Caused, resulted in, or reasonably could have led to the specific crime which caused the victimization; or
 - (2) Was itself clearly wrongful or illegal, thereby placing him/herself in a position to be victimization; or
 - (3) Clearly put him/herself into a situation where the crime was a reasonably expected and/or a prudent person would have avoided.
 - (e) Contributory conduct to the offense may be determined by the victim's actions or nature of the victim's involvement in the events leading up to victimization. The following factors may be considered in the determination of contributory conduct:
 - (1) Alcohol intoxication that resulted in the use of poor judgement by the victim;
 - (2) The presence of illegal drugs in the victim's body at the time of victimization;
 - (3) If the offender verbally insulted the victim and the victim failed to retreat, a contribution factor may be assessed;
 - (4) If it appears that the victim was injured as a result of poor judgement or as a result of his/her conduct being less than that of a prudent person in the same situation, a contribution factor may be assessed;
 - (5) If it appears that the victim first physically assaulted the offender, the victim's claim for compensation may be denied.
 - (6) When drugs are found in the possession of the victim at the time of victimization the claim may be ineligible. However, in death cases, if the police investigation reveals that it is more probable than not that the drugs were planted after the victim's death, a contribution factor may not be assessed.
 - (f) The Commission may consider all information relevant to the circumstances, including, but not limited to:
 - (1) Level of responsibility of the victim's conduct;
 - (2) Foreseeability of the consequences of such conduct;
 - (3) Ability to avoid the situation (Victim's failure to retreat or withdraw from situation where an option to do so existed.)
 - (4) Whether there is a direct causal relationship between the victim's actions and his/her victimization.

 - (14) Life insurance shall be considered a collateral source for compensation.
 - (15) The maximum award for moving expenses is $1,000.00. Written estimates for moving expenses and receipts shall be required. Alarm systems, fences, and burglar bars, installed after victimization, may be considered for a maximum of $1000 for the victim's real property.
 - (19) Lost wages and future economic loss may both be considered, but not to exceed a maximum of $10,400 per claim.
